WALK BY FAITH

Dear Christites,

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the complete staircase - Martin Luther King Jr

There are times when hope needs to go a little extra. Sometimes hope is all that remains at the times of adversities. It is our faith that becomes the real expression of our hope. Faith fortifies hope and lights up our lives.

Our lives are not devoid of trials and tribulations. Ultimate trust and strong belief in the good that is in store for each one of us is the real faith. It is this foundation that helps us to secure a lifelong, fruitful meaning for our existence. It can also entail that a passionate goal of any kind can be reached, regardless of the ups and downs of everyday living.

Dear Christites, without faith life becomes miserable. Faith is not only directed towards the almighty God but also your loved ones. It is imperative in each and every aspect of it, and can make a profound difference in the quality of life of an individual. When exams come up, have faith that you will do the best you can do to get the best grade possible. Your immense faith will act as the tonic that heals you from the existing struggles and perplexities.

We all know that sometimes, when things don't go according to our plan, we lose faith, not only in ourselves, but also in any potential outcome in our lives. Failure will do that to you. When we experience life's monumental failures, it's easy to lose hope, and even faith. Here is the real test of your faith. If your faith is deep rooted it will be constant and will never waver at any life situation.

Being a giver of faith and thereby lighting up the lives of others makes you a divine creation. Faith paves the path to existence in nobility. When you become a giver of faith you are becoming a giver of many beautiful values. You become a giver of hope, strength, confidence, courage, self esteem and more than everything you add meaning to a person's life.

My dear children, be the possessors and givers of good faith.

Vice Principal's Message

the anchor to save the life of our fellow human being? Where do we find a faith strong enough to make it through the storms of life? Max knows how important faith is and he gives us a great picture of faith, a faith that we can anchor deep with, and a faith which will hold us during the storms of life. Faith becomes meaningful only when are ready to share it. Even today it is not easy being a true religious men and women, but we must find a way to live our faith without compromise and share it with others.

Faith is the way we as receivers relate appropriately to God as the giver. It is empty hands held open for God to fill.”

Fr. Martin Onasseril CMI

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

My Dear Christites,

As we are in the early days of the New Year 2022, at the outset I wish you all every joy and blessing in this year. A new year is a time for us to look back into our past year and to learn lessons in view of putting in order ourselves better in the new year. May all these be the first step in building up trust and faith in this New Year.

As social beings, we have a great responsibility towards our fellow beings. This is by being concerned about them in their journey, especially about those who feel their journeys too tough and too hard. It is not uncommon to see people who succumb themselves to despair and disappointment because life is too difficult for them. In many cases, people find themselves in darkness without being able to discern the right path in their journey – how to develop themselves, how to make the best of all their talents, what is their choice in life etc. In these circumstances of darkness, ignorance, hopelessness, misery and fear, we are called to be the givers of faith, trust and self-confidence.

Even when people are endowed with many gifts, people might not have identified their gifts and talents. In those situations, let us help them in discovering themselves by helping them to see their great gifts. Let us help them in nurturing these unique gifts and accompany them as they grow in these gifts. Those who have neglected their unique talents in their journeys should be helped in re-discovering themselves.

We understand that it is the lack of self-confidence and the lack of trust in themselves, that become true obstacles in the way to success. We must break ourselves and come forward in supporting and helping people by givers of Faith, trust and confidence. I hope and pray that this New Year be a time for us to be people of faith and givers of faith. Let us join hands to build up trust, confidence and faith. LET US BE GIVERS OF FAITH.....

Giver of Faith

"The greatest legacy one can pass on to one's children and grandchildren are not money or other material things accumulated in one's life, but rather a legacy of character and faith." - Billy Graham

In his book, Six Hours One Friday, Max Lucado tells the story of how he and his boat survived a hurricane. An old sea man gave Max the advice to take his boat to deep water, drop four anchors off each corner of the boat, and pray that the anchors held. Max survived that storm, but he says that he learned an important lesson; all of us need an anchor that will hold during the storms of life.

That anchor is our faith. What have you put your faith in? How important is it to have faith? Is it necessary to share

Financial Administrator's Message

FAITH – The Best and Safest Course

To begin, I must put forward a disclaimer that I Am Not At All A Philosophical Person. The little knowledge I happen to have gathered from my personal experience is all I can sum up for this month's theme – "Be A Giver Of Faith". Faith emerges in two ways. It is either given immediately or must be built up over time. People who are natural Faith givers tend to be slightly more secure and less cautious based on their upbringing. This type of upfront Faith is either then validated or gets eroded over time.

Children, whenever something works in our favour, we claim that "we were right to Faith". If the thing doesn't work and Faith was eroded, then the Faith giver ends up disappointed with the other person.

If you are not a natural 'Faith giver' then you are probably a 'Faith earner'. This means you do not immediately Faith others. For you, Faith must be earned and accumulated over time. Faith earners tend to be more cautious. Their start point is wariness and they don't naturally Faith until the other person has proven themselves worthy of that Faith. Once Faith is earned, they can be loyal lifers.

Now.... ask yourselves, Are you a Faith giver or a Faith earner?

If you are a 9th or 10th std student, you definitely have read the story "My Greatest Olympic Prize" in your English class. Right?

An apt example to show how an unknown person (fellow sportsman Luz Long from Germany) instilled Jesse Owens' faith in himself which ultimately made him win 4 Gold Medals in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin.

This is Building, or indeed rebuilding. Faith for both Faith earners and Faith givers require us to ensure the four key elements of Faith are present. So, if you want to increase the level of Faith you need to focus on improving one or all of these elements:

1. Personal connection
2. Understand motives
3. Consistent delivery
4. Working style

I hope this did not sound like a lecture. I am sure, there are certain Christites who will understand the message I have put forth.

Stay blessed always!

The Patriot-A Tearful Tribute

General Bipin Rawat added great strength to our defence capabilities and made a stellar contribution to strengthening our national security. His demise shocked the entire nation. His outstanding service to our nation will always be remembered. To commemorate the sad demise of General Bipin Rawat and other 12 bravehearts including his beloved wife, Christ School ICSE released a video in its official YouTube Channel.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AND MANAGERS DAY

“When they saw the star, they rejoice with great joy!”

Mathew 2:10

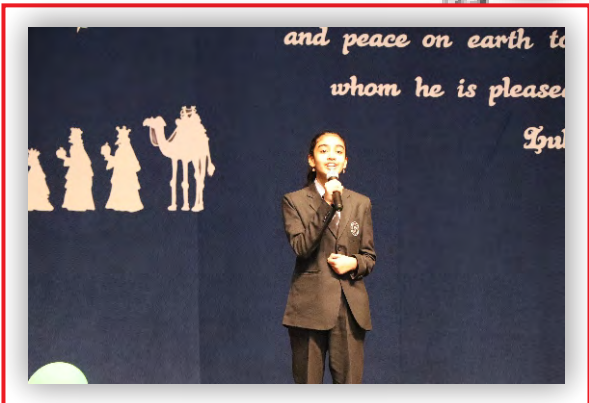

Feliz Natal- Christmas the season of joy, love, tolerance, and brotherhood was celebrated by Christ School ICSE on 22nd December. Chief Guest for the day, Sr Rosevera A.C, Principal Mary Immaculate School, along with Our Principal Rev. Fr. Nilson Davis Pallisery, Rev. Fr. Reji Koodapattu, Financial Administrator, and Coordinators lighted the lamp to commence the grand event. The students presented an array of interesting programmes like Angel dance, Shepherd dance, Joyful dance, and skit. The carol presented by our students ushered unique warmth and joy. Santa Claus amused everyone with his charm. The sound of jingle bells, the joy in the atmosphere filled up the surroundings and made the day more delightful. The winners of various competitions conducted in accordance with Christmas were honoured. The children carried home the message of sharing and caring as well as pleasure and pride of spreading peace, true to the spirit of the celebration.

Manager's day was celebrated on 22nd December at Christ State School. Various Principals of Christ group of schools too were a part of this beautiful day. Rev. Dr. Paul Achandy CMI, Manager Christ group of schools was felicitated by Principals and coordinators of Christ group of schools with a shawl, card, and a plant. The eve also witnessed exquisite performances by teachers from various Christ groups of schools. An event filled with joy and happiness- this was the best way to come to an end of the year and welcome another one with outstretched arms.

LEAP OF FAITH

Having faith gives us the hope and answers to life's most mystified questions. What is faith? Faith is always a way to get closer to the Almighty. One integrant of faith is a state of feeling confident and trusting. It's aptly quoted that "The faithful man perceives nothing less than opportunity in difficulties. Flowing through his spine, faith and courage work together." Faith is unforced and influential in countless ways.

A tie to a faith tradition is a bulwark in times of challenge, stress, sadness, or confusion, reducing the likelihood that such circumstances might push a person into one or more dysfunctional behaviours. Dear children when you grow in faith it isn't any difficult for you to be a giver of faith to you the ones around you. When you transfer this value to others you are becoming a more supreme being of existence. Always consider faith as a God-given gift which can be multiplied and shared for the good of other and it will never exhaust. It is amazing to receive something precious but when you keep it to yourselves you are becoming naïve and artless. Giving is divine and when you give you carry out the divine purpose for which you are created.

"Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you" -Luke 6:38

“ Faith comes from God in the form of a gift “,
(Ephesians 2:8).

FAITH means- belief, firm persuasion, assurance, firm conviction, faithfulness. Faith speaks the language of the heart. The Bible says that faith is confidence in what we hope for and the assurance that the Lord is working, even though we cannot see it. Faith knows that no matter what the situation, in our lives or someone else's, that the Lord is working in it. The more we immerse ourselves in truth, the more our confidence grows. Faith also helps to combat unbelief and motivates us to do what God desires us to do.

Without faith, nothing is possible. With it, nothing is impossible. – Mary McLeod Bethune

Faith is seeing light despite being surrounded darkness. Faith is climbing the staircase even if you can't see the top. Faith is knowing you have a divine purpose and that grace unseen will follow you wherever you go. Without faith, we are not able to achieve anything. If we observe all the greatest endeavours carried out in this world, we find that behind them faith was the sole-driving force, without which everything is impossible. A person can set a goal for himself, only if he has faith that ultimately, he will achieve the goal. Thus, faith forms the foundation of every new achievement, every new invention and every new discovery and every new victory.

Faith cannot be imposed upon anyone. It comes from deep inside one's heart. It cannot be measured. The quantity of faith possessed by you depends upon how positive your approach towards life is. Without faith, motivation for the achievement of goal is completely lost and the person ends up becoming a failure in his life. You can achieve everything if you have faith that you will certainly win one day by your determination, hard work and courage. Keep your faith intact and work towards achieving your goal.

Never give up
Never lose hope
Always have faith

Luke 6:38

Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

What is faith? It is not just about having or using in times of difficulty but it's also about giving it away as well. We fail when we do not share our faith with someone. God himself has not left us, He has placed us in the palm of his hand and so we too have to help someone who has lost all his or her faith in everything. There are times when one becomes hopeless and let us bring hope in one's life through our strong faith. Our prayers can help others to get back the lost faith. Our prayers can bring hope in tough situations. We see throughout the people of the powerful faith praying for others. There is someone today that needs our prayer for tomorrow, so take the time to share your faith and save others.

Our words have power like a sword. God himself used his words to create all things in this universe. Our words have creative and destructive power within them. The tongue is one such powerful force on earth. God has created us in his image and likeness and so, we can help lift faith in others or to lower faith in others. As it is rightly said, "Words are truly like seeds that will eventually produce sweet fruits or bitter roots."

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

There is someone today that needs your prayer for tomorrow. Words are truly like seeds that will eventually produce sweet fruits or better roots. When you share your treasure it raises the faith in others. Faith is not just about having it, and using it...it's about giving it away as well. We fall short in the complete work of faith if we are not sharing it with others. It's great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something. In fact, numerous studies have even shown us that helping others actually releases neurochemicals such as dopamine, serotonin, and oxytocin causing us to feel great. Psychology experts call this "helpers high." But it is all rooted in the spiritual principle that what we make happen for others God makes happen for us.

MUSIC [SANGEETHA-SOME-GEETHA(SOME TUNE)]

Sounds are all around us, but do we ever think of putting them together to create a specific atmosphere or to express our ideas or emotions?....

Music is a collection of coordinated sounds and it is the process of arranging the tones in an order. It is made of sounds, vibrations and silent moment and the way to convey a whole range of experiences, environment and emotions.

Music consists of Sargam, Ragas and Taals etc. It is not only composed of a person, but also which exists in nature.

"Music is the universal language of mankind." There's none of the creatures hate music in this universe, it connects the people and make some bondage in it. Music does a lot of transformation and creates a positive vibes in one's life.

It has a great healing power and is an explosive expression of humanity. It is something we all are touched by. No matter what culture we're from, everyone loves music.

In many cultures music is an important part of people's way of life, it plays a key role in religious rituals and other various events. Let me conclude by saying,

"Where words leave off, music begins."

So..... Let's begin.....

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Faith is not just about having it, and using it. It's about giving it away as well. We fall short in the complete work of faith if we are not sharing it with others. It's great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something. The more we help others the more it helps us, and the more it helps us, the more we help others. It is a feedback loop of blessings. And it all starts with taking a step of faith to share your faith. The more you give, the more is given to you.

There are 3 ways we can share our faith

1) By What We PRAY

Our prayers can help others. They have the ability to bring hope to tough situations. We see all throughout scripture people praying for other people.

2) By What We SAY

Our words have power. Tremendous power. Think about it God created the universe by speaking it into existence. He used words to create all things.

3) By What We PAY

Financially giving to another can open the door for their faith to rise up.

ನಂಬಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ನೀಡುವವರಾಗಿರಿ. {Be a given of faith}

‘ನಂಬಿಕೆ’ ಇದು ಕೇವಲ ಪದವಲ್ಲ ಇದು ಭಾವನೆ, ಬದುಕು, ಜೀವನ ಮತ್ತು ಜವಬ್ದಾರಿ. ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಮನಸ್ಸಿಗೆ ಸಂಬಂಧಿಸಿದ ವಿಷಯವಾಗಿದೆ. ನಾವು ಒಬ್ಬರನ್ನು ನಂಬುವುದು ಮಾನವೀಯತೆ, ಆದರೆ ಅದನ್ನು ಉಳಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವುದು ಅವರ ಯೋಗ್ಯತೆ. ‘ನಂಬಿ ಕೆಟ್ಟವರಿಲ್ಲವೋ ಮಾನವ’ ಎಂಬ ನಾಣ್ಯದಿಯಂತೆ ಬದುಕಿನ ಬುನಾದಿಯೇ ನಂಬಿಕೆ. ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಇದ್ದರೆ ಮೌನವು ಕೂಡ ಅರ್ಥವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಇಲ್ಲದಿದ್ದರೆ ಪ್ರತಿ ಮಾತು ಅಪಾರ್ಥ ವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಎನ್ನುವುದು ಅನುಬಂಧಕ್ಕೆ ಆತ್ಮ ಇದ್ದಂತೆ ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ನಾವು ನಂಬಿಕೆ ನೀಡುವವರಾಗಬೇಕು.

ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಇಲ್ಲದ, ನಟನೆಯಿಂದ ಕೂಡಿದ ಸ್ನೇಹ-ಸಂಬಂಧಗಳು ವಿಷಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಅಪಾಯಕಾರಿ ಎಂಬುದನ್ನು ಮರೆಯಬಾರದು. ಯಾವುದೇ ಸ್ನೇಹ, ಸಂಬಂಧ ಹಾಗೂ ಕೆಲಸಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಬಹಳ ಮುಖ್ಯ ಏಕೆಂದರೆ ಅದನ್ನು ಉಳಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಪೂರ್ತಿ ಜೀವನವೇ ಬೇಕಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಅದೇ ‘ವಿಶ್ವಾಸ’ ಅಲ್ಲವೆ; ಆಗ ಪ್ರೀತಿ, ಗೌರವ, ಸ್ಥಾನಮಾನಗಳು ತಾನಾಗಿಯೇ ಒಲಿದು ಬರುತ್ತದೆ.

ನಂಬಿಕೆ ನೀಡುವವರು ಗುಲಾಬಿ ಹೂಗಳಿದ್ದಂತೆ, ನಂಬಿಕೆ ದ್ರೋಹಿಗಳು ಆ ಗಿಡದಲ್ಲಿರುವ ಮುಳ್ಳುಗಳಿದ್ದಂತೆ, ರಸ್ತೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮುಳ್ಳು ಬಿದ್ದಿದ್ದರೆ ಬದಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಹೋಗುವುದು ಬುದ್ಧಿವಂತಿಕೆ, ಅದೇ ಮುಳ್ಳನ್ನು ಬದಿಗೆ ಸರಿಸಿ ಹೋಗುವುದು ಹೃದಯವಂತಿಕೆ, ನಾವು ಮುಳ್ಳಾದರೆ ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ನಮ್ಮನ್ನು ಬದಿಗೆ ಸರಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ ಹಾಗಾಗಿ ನಾವು ಮುಳ್ಳುಗಳಾಗದೆ ಆ ಗಿಡದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಿಡುವ ಗುಲಾಬಿ ಹೂಗಳಾಗೋಣ, ನಂಬಿಕೆ ನೀಡುವವರಾಗೋಣ ಆಗ ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ನಮ್ಮೊಂದಿಗೆ ಸದಾ ಇರುತ್ತಾರೆ.

“ನಂಬಿಕೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯಿಡಿ” - ಅದು ಜೀವನದ ಎಲ್ಲ ಸಂಬಂಧಗಳ ಅಡಿಪಾಯ.

ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಎಂಬ ಮೂರಕ್ಷರದ ಪದವೇ ನಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನದ ಎಲ್ಲ ಸಂಬಂಧಗಳ ಅಡಿಪಾಯವಾಗಿದೆ. ಈ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯ ಅಡಿಪಾಯ ಗಟ್ಟಿಯಿಲ್ಲದೆ ಹೋದರೆ ಮನಸ್ಸುಗಳು ದೂರವಾಗಿ ಯಾವ ಸಂಬಂಧಗಳು ಉಳಿಯಲಾರವು. ನಂಬಿಕೆಯೇ ಇಲ್ಲದೆ ಹೋದರೆ ಪ್ರೀತಿ, ವಿಶ್ವಾಸ, ಕರುಣೆ, ಕೋಪ ಅಷ್ಟೇ ಏಕೆ ಜೀವಕ್ಕೂ ಮತ್ತು ಜೀವನಕ್ಕೂ ಬೆಲೆ ಇಲ್ಲದಂತಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ತಂದೆ ತಾಯಿ, ಗುರು ಶಿಷ್ಯ, ಗಂಡ ಹೆಂಡತಿ, ಅಣ್ಣ ತಂಗಿ ಇನ್ನಿತರ ಸಂಬಂಧಗಳು ಈ ನಂಬಿಕೆ ಎಂಬ ಗಟ್ಟಿಗೋಡೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ನಿರ್ಮಾಣವಾದ ವರ್ಣಿಸಲಾಗದಂತಹ ಅದ್ಭುತಗಳು.

ತಂದೆ ತಾಯಿಗಳಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಮಕ್ಕಳು ಒಳ್ಳೆಯವರೆಂಬ ನಂಬಿಕೆ, ಮಕ್ಕಳಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಪೋಷಕರು ಚೆನ್ನಾಗಿ ನೋಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಾರೆಂಬ ನಂಬಿಕೆ, ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಗುರುಗಳು ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ಮಾರ್ಗ ತೋರುತ್ತಾರೆಂಬ ನಂಬಿಕೆ, ಆಸ್ತಿಕರಿಗೆ ದೇವರಲ್ಲಿ ನಂಬಿಕೆ, ನಿರಪರಾಧಿಗೆ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಲಯದ ಮೇಲೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆ. ಅಷ್ಟೇ ಏಕೆ ಗಾಂಧಿಜೀಯವರಿಗೆ ಸತ್ಯ ಮತ್ತು ಅಹಿಂಸೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ, ಅಂಬೇಡ್ಕರರಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಅಗಾಧ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಮತ್ತು ಜ್ಞಾನದ ಮೇಲೆ, ಬುದ್ಧನಿಗೆ ತನ್ನ ತತ್ವಗಳ ಮೇಲೆ ಹೀಗೆಯೇ ಅನೇಕ ಮಹಾನ್ ನಾಯಕರುಗಳಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯದ ಮೇಲೆ ಅಪಾರವಾದ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯಿಂದ ಯಶಸ್ಸಿನ ಗಿರಿಶಿಖರದ ಮೇಲೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಹೆಸರುಗಳನ್ನು ಅಚ್ಚಳಿಯದಂತೆ ಉಳಿಸಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ನಂಬಿಕೆಯೆಂಬ ಅಸ್ತ್ರದಿಂದ ಪರ್ವತವನ್ನೇ ಅಲುಗಾಡಿಸಬಹುದೆಂಬ ಅನುಭವದ ದೊಡ್ಡವರ ಮಾತು ಅತಿಶಯೋಕ್ತಿಯಲ್ಲ. ಹೀಗೆ ಹೇಳಿ ಹೊರಟರೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆಗಳ ಸರಮಾಲೆಗೆ ಕೊನೆಯಿಲ್ಲ.

ಹೊಟ್ಟೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಹೋದ ವಿಷ ಒಬ್ಬನನ್ನು ಹಾಳು ಮಾಡಿದರೆ ಅಪನಂಬಿಕೆಯಿಂದ ಹೋದ ಸಂಬಂಧ ನಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನವನ್ನೇ ಹಾಳು ಮಾಡುತ್ತದೆ. ನಮ್ಮ ನಂಬಿಕೆಗಳು ಭಾವನೆಗಳಿಗೆ ತಕ್ಕಂತೆ ಬದಲಾಗಬೇಕು. ನಂಬಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ಉಳಿಸಿ ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಹಲವಾರು ಜನರು ತಮ್ಮ ಪ್ರಾಣವನ್ನೇ ತ್ಯಾಗ ಮಾಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಇಲ್ಲಿ ಎಲ್ಲ ಜನರನ್ನು ಎಲ್ಲ ಸಮಯಕ್ಕೂ ನಂಬಬೇಕೆಂಬ ಒತ್ತಾಯವಂತೂ ಇಲ್ಲವೆ ಇಲ್ಲ. ಅನಾದಿ ಕಾಲದಿಂದಲೂ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯ ಪದದ ದುರುಪಯೋಗ ನಡೆಯುತ್ತಿದೆ, ಆದರೆ ಅವುಗಳಿಂದ ಅನುಭವಿಸಿದ ಯಾತನೆಯಿಂದ ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಜಾಗೃತರಾಗಿ ನಮ್ಮ ಪರಿಮಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಯಾರನ್ನು ಯಾವ ಸಮಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಎಷ್ಟನ್ನು ನಂಬಬೇಕು ಅಷ್ಟೇ ನಂಬಬೇಕು ಅತಿಯಾದರೆ ಅಮೃತವೂ ವಿಷವೆಂಬ ಕಿವಿಮಾತನ್ನು ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಆಲಿಸುತ್ತಾ, ಸ್ವ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯದ ಮೇಲೆ ಬಲವಾದ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯಿಂದ ಇನ್ನೊಬ್ಬರ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಆ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯ ಪದಕ್ಕೆ ಅರ್ಥ ಸಿಗುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡಲು ಆತ್ಮ ವಿಶ್ವಾಸದಿಂದ ಮುನ್ನಡೆಯೋಣ...

Be a giver of faith

The term “Faith” can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person, concept or a thing. Faith is different for everyone, having faith in something, or someone means believing in them and being able to trust them completely.

Religious faith and non-religious faith are two different things. Faith is a belief, which holds to every person- religious or non-religious. Faith is the hope that a person has, which also determines how the person decides to lead their life. Having faith helps in keeping a person's aim clear to them and helps them focus on their destination by not being deterred by the hardships that come their way. An individual feels enlightened and doesn't lose their heart in a moment of hopelessness, if they have faith. People who have succeeded in life and have made a change in the world is because they had faith in themselves and their beliefs. Every great achiever has always said that the reason why they are where they are in life is that they had faith in themselves. Faith is what made the “impossible” possible.

Be Giver of Faith

The term faith can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person, concept or a thing. Faith is different for everyone, having faith in something or someone means believing in them and being able to trust them completely. Mother Teresa had faith in humanity and brotherhood and she kept serving the poor and sick selflessly. Faith teaches us persistence and determination nothing is possible when faith is absent. Faith serves as the driving force behind all the greatest endeavors that have ever been and are still being pursued in this world. Faith gives a person the push that they need to achieve their goals and fulfil their dreams which they have set for themselves.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

- Everyone has a different perspective on faith.
- Faith is not about what we claim to believe, but faith is what we truly believe in.
- Faith means believing in something true for both a religious and non- religious person.
- Faith doesn't necessarily have to be religious.
- A struggle becomes much easier when the person has faith in themselves.
- Having faith doesn't always need prayers and an idol; it can be practiced from within.
- Having faith gives a person the hope to hold on in situations where everything seems dull and dark.
- One's faith is completely one's personal choice.
- Faith gives a person the strength to achieve their goals and aspirations.
- If one loses faith, failure is inevitable.

Be Giver of Faith

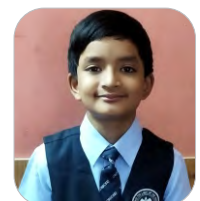

“Faith is unseen, but felt,
Faith is strength, when we feel we have none,
Faith is hope, when all seems lost.”

--- Anonymous

Yes, faith is the life saviour which keeps us moving ahead even in vulnerable situation. Especially in this world of uncertainty, faith can create wonders. It gives us the confidence to put a step forward courageously even when it feels that, it's the end of everything. Some have faith on god, some on rituals and some on values. Here, I would like to stress on one point i.e. faith does not mean that things always happen your way, instead it means that there is a plan for every soul in this world, and one should follow the path and believe in oneself, come what may. The supreme lord opens the doors of happiness and contentment to those who keep their faith and right attitude.

So my dear friends let us have strong faith on supreme lord, even though we do not have any tangible proof as faith makes our lives easier and guides us through the darkness.

BE A GIVER OF Faith

FAITH:(F) Forwarding (A)All (I)Issues (T)To (H) Heaven.

Being a giver of faith is the essence of giving hope. No matter how high one's aspirations maybe if they keep trusting in you and embrace faith and their dreams turn into reality.

So, be a giver of faith for a person who is facing some problem and looking for someone to inspire him, motivate him, support him, keep him focused... Someone who would love him, make him happy, need a faith not an empathy.

Giving faith is necessary as even if one fails, faith gives them the strength to embrace the failures and try again. Once he started to believe in yourself, magic starts happening.

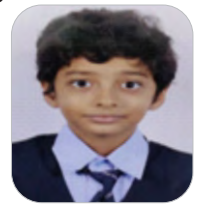

“Faith does not eliminate questions. But faith knows where to take them”

-ELISABETH ELLIOT

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Faith: confidence and trust in a person, concept or a thing. Faith is different for everyone – having faith in something, or someone means believing in them and being able to trust them completely.

Religious faith and non-religious faith are two different things. Faith is a belief, which holds to every person –religious or non-religious. Faith is the hope that a person has, which also determines how the person decides to lead their life.

Having faith is the essence of having hope. No matter how high one's aspirations maybe if they keep trusting in themselves and embrace faith, their dreams turn into reality. Faith teaches us persistence and determination – nothing is possible when faith is absent.

Example : There were two Elephants Mother elephant and baby elephant they were searching for food after sometime they found food but they had to cross the river to get it. The baby elephant said I cant cross the river the mother elephant said you can do it but still the baby elephant couldn't do it. Then the mother elephant said to be right side of me when I say 'one' we have to jump then the baby elephant said ok 3 2 1 jump they both jump and had a nice meal

Conclusion :I conclude Faith gives one motivation and also strength and enthusiasm for achieving their goals. Faith also success or failure of one's dreams.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Through hard work, perseverance and a faith in god, you can live your dreams”

-Ben carson

Faith is the fundamental part of our life. We're taught from a very young age that learning on faith in difficult situations helps us to overcome even the most trying and challenging times that we will face during our life. Having faith along with a positive outlook can help us to motivate and encourage the people around us to do the same. One can have faith without any prayers or any idols. Faith serves as the foundation of any mission that a person undertakes and has hope and will to complete. Even in the epics, there are examples of great characters like Lord Krishna, who won the battle against evil forces with his faith in goodness and fairness. Swami Vivekananda is another example of great men who practised and preached the power of faith to people and used it to get rid of most miseries faced by people. Mother Teresa had faith in humanity and brotherhood and she kept serving the poor and sick selflessly. History and one's own experience has innumerable examples to showcase that faith is the mother of success and force of life. Faith is something that comes with time. Faith is not about what we claim to believe but faith is what we truly believe in. Hence we the christites should become the giver of faith forever.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Faith is a gift from God. God is not only the Giver of Faith, but He is also the author and originator of our faith. It is great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something. According to the scriptures, "Give and it will be given to you". The more we help others, the more it helps us. It is a feedback loop of blessings.

Our words have power, words are truly like seeds that will eventually produce sweet fruits and bitter ones too. As faith givers we must be very careful and very intentional about the words we communicate. So, think twice before you speak because your words will plant the seeds of either success or failure.

Finally, financially giving to another can open the door for their faith to rise up. What you give away could be the answer that someone was praying for. Literally you become the hands and feet to show them God's provision for their situation. When you share of your treasures it raises the faith of others.

“ Be a giver of faith”

“Faith demands you to believe in something you cannot see. You choose!”

Faith is hope, faith is believing, faith is you know it is going to happen you just do not know when and how it is going to happen. Faith gives power and strength to accept the failures of life to the individual, it gives them motivation and eagerness to achieve the goals of life and it comes from within the individual it cannot be taught or forced on anyone. When one's faith is low or lost then he must be prepared for, as the failure is approaching.

If you have faith in yourself then you will follow your dreams and make them real, if you believe in yourself then you will also have faith in others that way others will also believe in you and if you have faith in God then you will also have faith in His timing, He will make you calm, make you believe that he is with you all the time, he takes control of all your struggles and worries and tells you to stop stressing yourself out and trust Him. So let us keep strong faith on ourselves and be a cheerful giver of faith as well.

Be the giver of faith..

I remember grandparents says, "Faith is the substantiation of things hoped for. Hence, it is the assurance, the confidence, the confirmation, the reality, the essence, the supporting ground, of things hoped for, the foundation that supports the things hoped for. Faith is also the conviction of things not seen. It convinces us of what we do not see. Hence, it is the evidence, the proof, of things not seen."

We can simplify it, as it is a positive thinking, or determining to believe something even in the face of difficulties, moreover faith is truly giving an opportunity to furtherance, salvage or survival. Yes, the Covid-19 pandemic was the toughest episode in our lifetime ever, to become the giver of faith for each other. One fine day, the world declared an indefinite complete lockdown due the Covid-19 pandemic. Everyone went with no clue that when they able to again step out from their home, when will be meeting their neighbour, colleagues, friends, parents, children, pets, doctor etc. No clue on how you get money for your daily bread, medicine or ration for survival. Moreover many were not even getting chance to see the sunlight in the pandemic time. Life were just going without knowing it is a day or night. Likewise, everyone was isolated and shrank in to their four walls. Even the social structure, government bodies and even medical helplines had also frozen for some time without any sign of furtherance. Everywhere only the terrific frame of fear and nervousness.

Will it that fear and nervousness helped any one?. Answer is very simple, NO.

One of the most important lessons we learned from COVID-19 is that, we need to be the giver of faith to each other. There the world realised the necessity of strengthening self-reliance and need of giving faith to each other for survival, rather than waiting for an administrative action in pandemic. Rest become the history, the world witnessed that many of common person voluntarily came forwarded to give the faith to fellow members by helping hand in all uncertainty of covid-19 pandemic. It may be the First aid, courier service, financial support or medical care or a meal for someone or sometimes, it may be a single line message like "I am with you in your struggle", that will make a faith in you by someone and it will wipe the sorrows of their faces with the hop of better tomorrow.

In general, life is in very short so try to be a kind heart to help needy or at least take a decision that you are not going to disturb others even if you are not able to help them. Therefore, be the giver of faith to empowering them to dream a better tomorrow.

" Be a giver of faith"

FAITH:Faith can be defined as the confidence & trust in a person, concept or a thing. Faith is not just about having it & using it, it's about giving it as well. It's great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something.

How to give faith?

Listen, Acknowledge&Inspiration: When we listen to people around us, we tell them they matter, &that their ideas are worth hearing. Acknowledge, the good things your friends do. It helps them realize they are on the right path. Inspire them by giving positive feedback. It makes them feel good, confident& capable.

A person can set a goal for himself, but he will succeed only if he has faith that ultimately, he will achieve the goal.A good faith giver learns to fulfil his responsibilities as well as take care of others. The more we help others the more it helps us & the more it helps us, the more we help others.

Be a Giver of Faith

The most important quality that one can have in our life time is belief in oneself and trusts others. This is called faith, which helps a person's aim clear and works for it. If he lacks faith he cannot achieve his set goals, even if he is intelligent, brave and skilful. There are many who don't have faith in themselves. They fail in life as they are not able to face difficulties that come in their way. They get very upset and disappointed which lead them to their downfall and failures. Here comes the role of a person as a Giver of Faith.

As a giver of faith we can do a lot of things. We can nurture hope, courage and strength in such people to overcome their failures and try again. The present-day world full of competitions, working hard to achieve their goals often meets with failures. It makes them lose their confidence and trust. As a Giver of Faith we can instil confidence and build up hope in such people and make them aim for a better life. Truly it comes from within and determines as one's attitude to life. It motivates and strengthens one's outlook to make them grow in their attitude. So we are true sons of God and a lover of humanity must be true givers of faith encouraging and motivating our fellow beings to live their life dreaming bigger.

Faith in God

I am the Lord's favorite, as I am in the Almighty, and
I am at His service, forever.
I am in you, as
You are created in His Image.
Through me,
Abraham receives God's mercy,
Moses takes Israel into Canon,
David kills Goliath, and
Daniel walks through the fire.
The Lord gave me to Adam and Eve.
They denied me.
They are not in the Garden of Eden.
Jesus gives me to you,
To be with Him
In the "Garden of Eden".
Will you accept me,
And pass me to the future?

Be a giver of faith

Fristly the topic of today is one of the thoughtfull topic because this is a positive word that is very important to learn, Implement and teach. Faith is very difficult to learn and if we learn if we have to implement by knowing whom, when and where to have faith. And is very evident that having faith on anyone is not a easy task. But, we should have a positive attitude on learning it, we all know that we have faith on teachers, parents, God, and pets as well and is very common. To learn what is faith first you should learn these qualities. So, once you gain the faith from them you should also teach what faith is. But having faith on others is a little tricky. We should also know that before excepting on whom we should gave faith on, we should be the person to show that we are always there for others to have faith on us. So, you should be trustworthy, honest and loyal to the people whom we love the most. I would like to conclude this article by saying that the best preaching is not to preach others but preach yourself. Thank you

Be a giver of Faith

Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies.

Mother Teresa

What does one mean when they say being faithful? Well, it is actually a very simple answer, being faithful requires us to be true to our word/ promises.

The expression “just have faith, it will work out” is used by people to encourage and comfort someone facing serious problems or stressful situations. Faith is the very sum and substance of life. Without faith, human beings cannot achieve anything. A person can set a goal for himself, only if he has faith that ultimately he will achieve the goal. Thus, faith forms the foundation of every new achievement, every new invention and every new discovery, and every new victory.

There is a correlation between faith and achievement. So, you can achieve everything if you have faith that you will certainly win one day with your determination, hard work, and courage. Keep your faith intact and work towards achieving your goal.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Hello everyone my name is Nathania from 4C and today I am going to talk about Being a giver of faith. First of all, we should know what is faith. Faith is believing something with full hopes.

Faith is the foundation of human life. Rabindranath Tagore once said “Faith is the bird that feels the light and sings in the dawn when it’s still dark”. Faith is the light that guides you through the darkness. Faith is not about having it and using it... it’s also about giving it away. What we do for others God will bring back to us. The more we help others the more it helps us, and the more it helps us, the more we help others. It’s like a loop of blessings. And it all starts with taking a step of faith to share your faith. Truly when we take the focus off ourselves and place it on another it creates a win-win situation. There are 3 ways we can share our faith.

1. By Praying

Our prayers can help others. We can pray for our Friends, Family members, Teachers & Elders to make their faith level increase.

2. Words of encouragement

We have the ability to encourage others with positive words which will help them motivate and the faith in them will increase.

3. Helping hand

When we share our treasures, it raises the faith in others.

Let’s be a Giver of Faith.

Be A Giver of Faith

As human beings, our survival on earth is deeply dependent on our fellow beings. There are several necessities which we won’t be able to meet without being part of the society. The ability of human beings to connect and function together as social beings made our existence secure and progressive on this planet. Instead of being physically weak compared to many other species, human beings were able to attain the most powerful and sustainable existence due to the virtues of our rationality and societal life. Our social life is based on mutual trust, faith in humanity, shared values and shared realities. Peaceful and harmonious life of individuals rely on the common connection to the ethos of our community. All of our interactions, considerations, involvements, expectations etc. with our fellow beings are exchanges of faith in humanity at some level. Thus, it is important to maintain, exercise, cultivate, and propagate our faith in humanity. Apart from the person-to-person or person-to-society interactions based on faith, human beings share the spiritual aspect of faith as well. Spiritual connection to the divine forces or mother nature also should be an integral part of our faith for possessing a balanced, empathetic, ethical, and comprehensive world view. It is our responsibility to ensure the existence of this faith by being a giver of faith.

There are 3 ways we can share our faith..

- 1) By What We PRAY -Our prayers can help others. They have the ability to bring hope to tough situations. Ask for them, believe for them, and have faith for them.
- 2) By What We SAY - Our words have tremendous power. There is a proverb "The tongue has the power of life and death We have the ability to help lift faith in others or to lower faith in others. "Think twice before you speak, because your words and influence will plant the seed of either success or failure in the mind of another.
- 3) By What We PAY - Financially giving to another can open the door for their faith to rise up. Literally, you become the hands and feet to show them God's provision for their situation. When you share of your treasures it raises the faith in others

The term faith can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person, concept or a thing. Having faith in something, or someone means believing in them and being able to trust them completely.

Faith serves as the driving force behind all the greatest achievements that have ever happened, nothing is possible when faith is absent. Faith gives a person the push that they need to achieve their goals and fulfil their dreams – which they have set for themselves.

Having faith is necessary as even if one fails, faith gives them the strength to embrace the failures and try again. Faith cannot be taught, forced or imbibed into a person. It comes from within and serves as the determiner of one's attitude towards life. Faith is what made many impossibles, possible. Thanks to the biggest giver of such above mentioned divine faith to me and all - the almighty god.i would also like to thank my parents, friends and relatives for having huge faith on me and my works. i also wish everyone have self faith on yourselves, which will be the main driving force to attain success. No matter how high one's aspirations may be, if they keep trusting in themselves and embrace faith, their dreams do turn into reality.

Be a giver of Faith

Faith is avenue or the instrument God uses to bring salvation to His people. God gives us faith because of His grace and mercy, because He loves us. Faith comes from God in the form of a gift. A gift is not earned by some good deed or kind word, and it is not given because the giver expects a gift in return-under any of those conditions, a gift would not be a gift.

God emphasizes that faith is a gift because it deserves all of the glory for our salvation. If the receiver of faith could do anything whatsoever to deserve or earn the gift, that person would have every right to boast. By knowing our saving faith comes from God alone, it should encourage people to "not think of yourself more highly than you ought," but remember God decides the measure of faith each one receives.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Belief is one of the most important values of human life. Every moment is lived based on some belief. We go to bed every night with the belief that we wake up in the morning. Children act with the belief that everything that their parents say good. Belief in God helps in the continuity of life. All relationships (brother-in-law, sister-in-law, husband-wife, friends, etc.) are strengthened every day when they believe in each other. Belief also helps people to follow their own ideas. For example, Harishchandra, who believed in truth, faced many difficulties, but his belief in truth helped him overcome difficulties. Those who betray will never find a better place in society. Gandhi's belief in truth and non-violence helped bring India's Independence. The belief that service rendered to needy is service rendered to God resonates in this soil. Hence, each one of us should work towards becoming the person everyone believe.

Faith. It's a word we hear thrown around all the time. Keep the faith. Walking in faith. Having faith. So what is faith? Faith has several different definitions.

1. Complete trust or confidence in someone or something.
2. Strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than truth.
3. A system of religious belief.
4. A firmly held belief or theory

Faith means

F = full

A = assurance

I = in

T = thrusting

H = him

What do bible say faith is

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." "And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him

Few important points about faith.

Faith is grace, a super natural gift of god.

Faith is certian.

Faith seeks understanding.

Faith is not opposed to science.

Faith is necessary for salvation

Grace enables faith

It's faith is the beginning of eternal life.

Be A Giver of Faith

Faith means “complete trust for confidence in someone or something” as per the dictionary. Faith is what a child has on a mother, a student has on a teacher.

Giving doesn't have to be money always, it can be clothes that you are not wearing, toys that your kids are not playing with, some words of encouragement, an idea to make someone's life better. Being a giver of faith can be a small thing like giving confidence to a fellow human which will boost them to achieve the unthinkable. The giver of faith will never be out of things that he can give to the society. The human race has experienced unprecedented times in past couple of months loss of jobs, loss of loved ones etc.

We all need to raise to the occasion and ensure the humanity survives and start being a giver and offer whatever we can to make the world a better place for us and our children. We have to sow the seeds of giving and be a giver of faith.

Be a giver of Faith

Dear all,

The word faith means 'Trust' means 'strong belief or trust in someone or something'.

Example the child trust its parents, students trust teachers, patients trust doctor.

Faith plays a leading role in all human beings. There is a strong faith between a god and human beings. God gives faith because of his grace and mercy. Faith comes from God in the form of gifts. Faith is a gift that God deserves all the glory for our salvation. God will give what is good to all.

Even human being is also considered as a giver of faith. Faith builds beautiful relationship between the all the human beings. Faith goes a long way in making an individual's life happiness and full achievements.

If every human being becomes a giver of faith, It increases the unity of people, Increases the hope, provides inner strength, self-confidence.

So, Faith is essential in life. Nobody can ignore. It's a natural and god gifted quality of all the human beings.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

In the times of pandemic it is very important that we be the giver of faith. Life has been tough to everyone in the past 2 years. Things that were taken for granted like daily supplies, transportation were taken away. The simplest thing like breathing, meeting your friends/neighbors bought the worst fear. It is very important that we maintain our faith in ourselves. It gives the strength to achieve our goals and aspirations. Having faith doesn't only mean prayers but it can also be practiced from within. By being kind to people around you, you can experience faith and by doing so you are helping others see faith in themselves.

Be a Giver of Faith

The term faith can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person. Faith and prayer are the vitamins of the soul; man cannot live in health without them. Faith that it's not always in your hands or things don't always go the way you planned, but you have to have faith that there is a plan for you, and you must follow your heart and believe in yourself no matter what. Faith is that distant light that still keeps us moving even when the circumstances and surroundings seem to fall apart. When one has faith and keeps practicing hard work courage and determination, there is nothing that can stop them from winning.

"I believe if you keep your faith, you keep your trust, you keep the right attitude. Believe in yourself, and the rest will fall into place. Have faith in your own abilities, work hard, and there is nothing you cannot accomplish."

Be a giver of Faith

"Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase."

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

The recent global pandemic has imparted us all several life lessons and values. Despite many difficulties what kept us going were faith and hope. Faith has a vital role in moulding one's perspective about life. Childhood is the right time to inculcate faith as that helps them to set and accomplish their goals. Faith is a virtue that empowers a person and enables him/her to address the challenges during difficult times. We as an individual have the social responsibility to be a giver of faith. Research based studies shows that Faith has a positive impact on Mental Health. Faith induces optimism that augments the quality of life. When we give a gift to a child, the happiness may be momentum however when we turn to be a giver of faith the happiness is for their entire life. Let's aspire to be a giver of faith and lit the lamp of happiness in lives.

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

Faith means Confident or unquestioning belief in the truth, value, or trustworthiness of a person, idea, or thing. So, faith is being certain about realities we believe are true, but we cannot see with our physical eyes.

Faith is very important in our lives because to achieve anything, having faith is very important. One doesn't only have to show faith in God, showing faith in a human being is also very necessary. Sometimes, you need to show faith on your friends, your families, or any other persons.

Having faith is necessary as even if one fails, faith gives them the strength to embrace the failures and try again. Faith cannot be taught, forced, or imbibed into a person. It comes from within and serves as the determiner of one's attitude towards life.

Faith is one human characteristic that does not allow for compromise. That is, either one possesses it or does not. Those that do possess faith generally lead blessed, fun-filled lives, despite the various trials and tribulations encountered along the way. They are usually extremely successful yet grounded in the principles of life, and generally inspire others to have faith and to improve in every aspect of their life.

Be a Giver of Faith

The term faith can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person, concept, or a thing. Faith is different for everyone – having faith in something, or someone means believing in them and being able to trust them completely.

Faith is not just about having it and using it...it is about giving it away as well. We fall short in the complete work of faith if we are not sharing it with others. It is great to receive something, but it is even greater to give something. In fact, numerous studies have even shown us that helping others releases neurochemicals such as dopamine, serotonin, and oxytocin causing us to feel great. Psychology experts call this “helpers high.” But it is all rooted in the spiritual principle that what we make happen for others God makes happen for us.

“Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

The more we help others the more it helps us, and the more it helps us, the more we help others. It is a feedback loop of blessings. And it all starts with taking a step of faith to share your faith. The more you give, the more is given to you. When American psychologist Dr. Karl Menninger was asked, “What would you advise a person to do, if he felt a nervous breakdown coming on?” Assuming he would expound on an intensive treatment plan his response shocked them. He said, “Lock up your house, go across the railway tracks, find someone in need, and do something to help that person.” Truly when we take the focus off ourselves and place it on another it creates a win-win situation.

There are three ways we can share our faith...

1) By What We PRAY

Our prayers can help others. They can bring hope to tough situations. We see all throughout scripture people praying for other people. We see them standing in the gap between their situation and God. Jesus took the time to pray for us and the Bible says He is interceding for us even now.

Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

The Greek word for interceding here is entugchano. It was sometimes used of bringing a petition before a king on behalf of another. What an amazing thought...Jesus is petitioning to His Father on our behalf. If Jesus is petitioning on our behalf, we need to be doing the same for others. Ask for them, believe for them, and have faith for them. There is someone today that needs your prayer for tomorrow, so take the time to share your faith.

2) By What We SAY

Our words have power. Tremendous power. Think about it God created the universe by speaking it into existence. He used words to create all things. He could have just thought it, but instead He spoke it.

“The tongue has the power of life and death...”

Our words have creative or destructive power within them. They are self-fulfilling prophecies about the future. The Bible is clear that the tongue is one of the most powerful forces on earth. Nowhere else does it say something has the power of life and death in it. We can help lift faith in others or to lower faith in others. Words always produce results: good, bad, or indifferent. Words are constantly at work effecting outcomes. Once something is communicated, it is out there. The wave of impact that word has will continue to carry momentum long after it is heard. Therefore, we play back words and conversations in our heads long after the conversation has been finished. Author Napoleon Hill said, "Think twice before you speak, because your words and influence will plant the seed of either success or failure in the mind of another." Words are genuinely like seeds that will eventually produce sweet fruits or bitter roots. As faith givers, we must be incredibly careful and very intentional about the words we communicate.

3) By What We PAY

Financially giving to another can open the door for their faith to rise. I know this as a fact. Years ago, I was on the way to church for our Sunday morning service and she felt the urge to give some money to a single parent in our congregation. When she got to church, she sought me out, as I was getting ready for service, to fill me in on this strong feeling she was having. I totally agreed as I knew he was a single parent of three and was working long hours just to pay the bills. She then asked me how much we should give, and I said, "I guess five thousand. Does that sound good?" She quickly responded, "That's what I felt like we should give him." So, she got an envelope and put some cash in it and asked someone to anonymously give in to him on our behalf.

Here is where it gets good... that same morning the single parent woke up feeling like he needed to give five thousand to someone else in the church in need. He really wrestled with it since he had nothing to give, and that would deplete most of his money for the week. But he could not shake the urge to give it away to this specific person that was on his heart. Taking a leap of faith and going all in, he came to church and gave the money to the person and said, "God, I trust you to provide." Well...guess what happened? Just after he gave his money away, he received an anonymous envelope with exactly five thousand in it. He could not believe what had happened. As fast as he gave it away, God showed up for him and replenished his resources. It was an experience that raised his faith to a new level. I know because he got up and shared it with the church that morning as he could not hold his gratefulness in. When he shared it and I was blown away. He never knew it was us, but we got to see the hand of God in detail through the entire process.

What you give away could be the answer that someone was praying for. You become the hands and feet to show them God's provision for their situation. When you share of your treasures it raises the faith in others.

"Freely you have received; freely give."

BE A GIVER OF FAITH

The term faith can be defined as the confidence and trust in a person, concept or a thing. It's not about having hope that something will happen; instead, it's about knowing that something will happen, because you believe that it will.

Faith is what helps to get us through illuminating the pathway in times of darkness, helping to give us strength in times of weakness.

Faith teaches us persistence and determination. Faith gives a person the push that they need to achieve their goals and fulfil their dreams which they have set for themselves. Hence every new invention, discovery and success is possible because of the faith that was held on to during the tough times.

Swami Vivekananda is an example of great men who practised and preached the power of faith to people and used it to get rid of most miseries faced by people. Mother Teresa said "Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies", she kept serving the poor and sick selflessly.

Thus, Faith serves as the driving force behind all the greatest endeavours that have ever been and are still being pursued in this world.

Giver of Faith

Faith is the essence of having hope. The faith of the human in the Divine is a trust that evolves when the urge for surrender is inevitable and when the reasoning to justify an occurrence fails. This surrender spurts, flows and then continues incessantly as a devotion to the unknown cosmic power. Faith is not just about having it and using it... it's about giving it away as well. We fall short in the complete work of faith if we are not sharing it with others. It's great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something. It all starts with taking a step of faith to share your faith. Share faith by prayers, Our prayers can help others. They have the ability to bring hope to tough situations.

Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. - Luke 6:38 (NIV)

Be giver of faith

Faith simply means to have complete trust or confidence in the almighty or someone.

If we have faith then it gives us hope to move ahead in life.

This is not only restricted to us if we can be a giver or pass on our faith it can be through our talks or through our deeds which would give to someone very much in need.

"None of us know what might happen even the next minute yet still we go forward because we trust we have faith as quoted by Paulo Coelho. So what else can be more better than passing on our faith, hope and happiness to our neighbour or fellow beings who are in very much need of it.

We can pass our faith through talking, sharing, understanding even loving. All these acts give hope to others which itself will help build trust not only on people but every religion teaches us to pass on hope and to trust the almighty for the good times to come.

So during this pandemic let us all be givers faith and build a happy surrounding,
Be good and the best will be given to you. So be a good giver.

Be a Giver of Faith

Faith is derived from Latin word 'fides' and from Old French word fides' which means confidence or trust in a person, thing or concept. It is the most powerful word which leads a person in life. But faith is not just about having it it's about giving it away as well. It's great to receive something, but it's even greater to give something. It is all rooted in the spiritual principle that what we make happen for others God makes happen for us.

What you give away could be the answer that someone was praying for. Literally, you become the hands and feet to show them God's provision for their situation. When you share of your treasures it raises the faith in others.

Recently we all heard about Harekala Hajabba, an orange vendor from Mangalore who built a primary school with his earnings of Rs 150 per day, received the Padma Shri award. He is a great example of "Be a Giver of Faith". Let the life of people like him be a great inspiration to all of us to be a giver of faith.

ALUMNI CORNER

"Some memories are unforgettable, remaining vivid and heart warming."

My journey to attain holistic education began on 4th June ,2007 in this beautiful school, I would rather call it as my temple of learning. I can proudly say that I have completed 12 years of schooling in this prestigious institution.

My most wonderful and loved memories were created here. From requesting teachers for a free hour demanding for more P.E. periods, group studies, impositions and special classes, all the fights and pranks, eagerly waiting for sports day, cultural fest ,trips with utmost excitement and most importantly getting punished out of the class with friends have been my best experience in school.

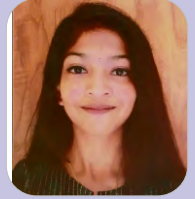

The golden hands of my teacher shaped the base of my future and took utmost care of me. The values and morals taught by my teachers play a very significant role in my life and the school has moulded me into a better person and a proud Christite.

In the end I would like to tell each and every christite to enjoy their school life and make cherishable memories because once you come out school you will definitely miss them.

Besides do give equal importance to studies.

Thank you.

Rohini Gangatkaar A.M.

CHRIST ICSE SCHOOL is much beyond just an "Institution" but was always a family, another home, which helped me in my academic learning and gaining beautiful friendships and experiences which added a different perspective to my life.

Having the privilege to be a part of the 'Christ culture' that is empowering ourselves to excellence will always be something to be immensely proud of and it has definitely moulded our personalities as better versions.

At school I always felt blessed to be taught by the best teachers. They were always with us and not only helped us to grow academically but provided us with a horizontal exposure in all fields. I am grateful for such an environment and want to thank the Christ family that has made us the better people we are.

The infinite love and support I have received from my teachers & friends at every step made all the 12 years of school memorable and it will be cherished always.

At all points of my life I will continue being a Christite by being a light to the world.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

Harivansh Rai Bachchan

(27 November 1907 - 18 January 2003) was an Indian poet of the Nayi Kavita literary movement (romantic upsurge) of early 20th century Hindi literature. He was also a poet of the Hindi Kavi Sammelan. He is best known for his early work Madhushala. He is also the husband of social activist, Teji Bachchan, father of Amitabh Bachchan and grandfather of Abhishek Bachchan. In 1976, he received the Padma Bhushan for his service to Hindi literature. Bachchan was fluent in several Hindi languages (Hindustani, Awadhi). He incorporated a broadly Hindustani vocabulary, written in Devanagari script. While he could not read Persian script, he was influenced by Persian and Urdu poetry, particularly Omar Khayyam.

STATE UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Welcome aboard a travel experience that gives you a glimpse into this vibrant and beautiful country - INDIA.

MEGHALAYA

Steamy jungles and spellbinding cliffs, rushing rivers, unique cultures, delicious cuisines, windswept highlands, and lush, verdant valleys – Meghalaya welcomes you with a breathtaking array of sights and experiences

Located in northeast India, Meghalaya, also known as the Abode of Clouds, falls in one of the richest biodiversity areas in the world. The famed monsoons, the rich traditional festivals, and the dramatic terrain are just some of the many things this state is famous for. Whether you are looking for an adventure to give you an adrenaline high or a tranquil spot to recharge yourself, Meghalaya has plenty to offer.

The unforgettable landscapes of Meghalaya will stay in your heart, long after your journey is over. The table-top heights of Sohra (Cherrapunjee) are brimful with waterfalls, streams, and forest trails. Gaze at the Bangladeshi plains from the many vantage points on the state's southern ridges. The outskirts of Shillong and the high plateau around Myllem and Smit offer postcard-perfect representations of the simple life – complete with pastel green meadows, tall pine groves, crisp cool air, and quiet villages with quaint cottages and wooden fences spread across the countryside.

Further west, the Garo Hills burst into all the shades of green that you can think of. It is a region where you can travel on winding roads that pass through undisturbed forests where pachyderms and predators still rule and discover rarely-breached ecosystems. Meghalaya's largely agrarian society has also contributed to this vibrant mosaic. Paddy fields neatly carved out of the hills and betel plantations that blend into the forest are just some examples you will come across. On the eastern part of the state, the Jaintia Hills offer more even enchanting views – a mix of heady cliffs, river-crossed tableland, rapids and waterfalls, and primeval forests that still remain unexplored in places.

Meghalaya is inhabited by many distinct tribes, the most prominent being the Khasis, the Garos, and the Pnars. Other tribes include the Hajongs, the Karbis, and the Koch. The tribes are further distinguished into sub-tribes and clans – represented in different dialects, diets, and clothing. There are many residents of the state whose previous generations have migrated from nearby and distant regions, especially in the capital Shillong – adding a cosmopolitan charm to the town.

A visit to Meghalaya will be incomplete without some cultural experiences. The best time to observe traditional practices and imagery is during the main festivals. Shad Suk Mynsiem is a major event in the Khasi calendar, celebrated in the month of April as a showing of gratitude to nature and to celebrate the harvest and the sowing of new seeds. Highlights include a dance where the participants are dressed in the rich traditional attire, laden with silk, gold, coral, and more.

Wangala is a harvest festival celebrated in the months between September and December across the Garo Hills. It is a great time to experience the old traditions of Meghalaya's western-most tribe and indulge in the unique cuisine of the place.
